PINNEY YOUNGS' PATENT SAWING MACHINES.
PATENTED JANUARY 30, 1855.

THESE CELEBRATED SIDING MACHINES are the only Machines that do or can cut both ways, and thus avoid loss of time in gigging back. They cut with ease, when properly attended, Fifteen Hundred Feet per Hour. They are not more complicated, nor more likely to get out of repair, than any other Siding Machine. A Machine on this plan for sawing wide lumber in connection with an upright saw for slabbing the logs, will excel anything in existence. We have sold a large number of the Siding Machines, all of which have given the most perfect satisfaction. They are

MANUFACTURED ON THE WATER POWER, IN THE CITY OF MILWAUKEE,

Under the supervision of the inventor, where Machines may be obtained, on application to PINNEY YOUNGS & CO.

We subjoin the following Testimonials of the estimation they are held in, by purchasers:

MANISTEE, MICHIGAN, October 1st, 1855.

PINNEY YOUNGS & CO.:
Gentlemen:—In answer to your inquiry as to how I am pleased with the Siding Machine of Pinney Young's Patent you sold me, I can truly say it is better than recommended. It far exceeds my expectations. To give you an idea of what can be done with it, I will give you an account of a few hours sawing: It cut in four hours and twenty minutes, Eight Thousand Nine Hundred and Sixty Feet of Lumber, superficial face feet, and that in the most perfect manner.

Yours truly,
(Signed) SAMUEL POTTER.

MILWAUKEE, March 28th, 1856.

We have one of "Pinney Young's Patent Sawing Machines" in operation, and would say that it is all that it's represented to be, and gives perfect satisfaction.

DAILY SENTINEL.

Origin of Words.
From Rev. Mr. Conway's "Paper on Language."

Sensation gives nouns; action, which follows sensation gives verbs, which are nouns in motion; reflection gives adjectives, which are the first sign of the authority of the human judgment in all things. Words thus symbolize the facts of experience. The question how words came to express those specific objects for which they stand is exceedingly subtle and difficult. The word for the sky in the Old Testament, "firmament," represents the belief of the writers that the heavens are a solid vault; but why should the combination of sounds that form the word "firm" be chosen to denote that which is solid? Our only resource is to suppose that there is an ultimate connection between the senses, in virtue of which there is an analogy between the appearance or habits of the thing named and some sound.

There is a hiss in the word for serpent in most languages. A difficulty is caused by the variety of terms used by language to express the same object. These differences may be accounted for, 1st, by the different aspects in which the same object may be viewed; and 2dly, by the individuality of nations. We have adopted from the Romans the word "consider," to "sit down" with a subject; the Germans express the same mental operation by überlegen, to "lie over" a subject; the Greek would say skiptomai, "I shade my eyes to look steadfastly" at a subject. The words of races are as individual as their faunas, and exclude the idea of the unity of races.

The propriety of using words which represent ideas known to be false was discussed; as "sunrise" and "sunset, lunatic, flesh and spirit." The question lies between the historical uses subserved by such names and the practical errors fostered.

The Etiquette of Visiting Cards.
From Punch.

When you drop your piece of pasteboard anywhere, even in the very genteelest neighbourhood, let it be a piece of pasteboard, and nothing more, except being engraven with your name and address. Do not, at any rate, let your card be enamelled. The enamel is prepared from lead, and the process of applying it is stated, on good authority, to produce paralysis of the hands and other miserable complaints among the poor people engaged on this ridiculous manufacture. A shiny card imparts no lustre to the name upon it; but communicates an appearance of vulgar glitter to the table or shelf whereon it is deposited.

If you rejoice in polish, concentrate that quality on your manners, conversation, and boots. In case you find it absolutely necessary to display your taste in visiting cards, have them embossed; and then it will be as well for you to wear lace collars and shirts of the same material. But eschew those cards that are enamelled, and which, to the enlightened eye, are glazed with what may be called a shine taken out of the heath of unhappy victims afflicted with palsy and colic.

☞ M. Montalembert, a French traveller, gives the following advice to such of his countrymen as contemplate visiting America:

1. If you are determined on going to America to make a fortune, be sure of returning to France to spend it.
2. Make your will before starting: you are a excessively lucky man if you return.
3. Believe the women, distrust the men—fear the children.
4. Go ahead; broken arms, legs and fortunes; but as everybody is not killed—All right! go ahead!
5. Look on each railway as a pistol aimed at your head.

☞ "Rodgers' Table Talk" inspires Punch to give a specimen of the Table Talk of Todgers:

"I was always," said Todgers, "kind to animals; I recollect being much hurt by a flea that hopped away from me and avoided me. Once it hopped towards me, but when I was about to lay on it the hand of friendship, it gave a skip in a contrary direction. I lost sight of it, and we never met again."

IMPORTANT DECREE.—The Emperor has just published a decree, which orders that whenever the imperial baby, the young Napoleon the Fourth, passes a company on parade, a barrack, a military post, or an estafet, the soldiers must present arms, the drums must roll and the horns toot, the same as for his Majesty himself!

The test of good humor is to wake a man up in the middle of the night, and ask him to lend you five shillings. If he makes the change without grumbling, he is a good humored man.

NEWS OF THE MORNING.

Both Houses of Congress, it will be seen, have acted promptly in the matter of the brutal and dastardly assault committed by Mr. Brooke, of South Carolina, upon Senator SUMNER. Intense indignation has been excited throughout the Free States, by this latest phase of Border Ruffianism.

We have further reports of bloody doings in Kansas, and of a probable battle at Lawrence. What a spectacle for this day and generation to witness such a struggle between Liberty and Slavery in the very heart of the American Republic!

Our New York correspondent, in his admirable letter this morning, administers a scathing, but merited rebuke to the pusillanimous, wayward and vacillating policy of the Pierce Administration.

The President has sent in another Veto to Congress, on the bill appropriating money to improve the St. Mary's river, Michigan. Small chance the West stands for justice at the hands of our Democratic Administration!

The New York market of yesterday shows a decided improvement in the price of breadstuffs, with good demand. There was more inquiry in our own market, with increased receipts and larger sales.

The attention of the reader is invited to our Advertising and Local columns.

Border Ruffianism Spreading.

The murders, as yet unatoned-for, of Dow, Barbour and Brown, by the "Border Ruffians" in Kansas, have found apologists among the press, and imitators among the leaders of the Sham Democracy. It is but a few days since Mr. HERBERT, a southern Pro-Slavery Democrat, and one of the Representatives from California, became engaged in a disgraceful brawl in the Public Dining Room at Willard's Hotel, Washington, and having himself given the first provocation and struck the first blow, ended the affair by drawing a loaded pistol, concealed about his person, and discharging it at a group of Irish waiters, instantly killing one of their number and wounding two others. Being arrested and examined before a Washington Court, all sorts of influences are brought to bear to get him off, and he is finally released, on bail, to answer a charge of manslaughter! The next day he resumes his seat in the Representatives Hall, as if the matter had been a mere trifle, and a motion to appoint a Committee to investigate the circumstances of the murder and decide if it were fit that the popular Assembly of the Republic should be contaminated by such a presence, is resented by the "Chivalry," and voted down by sympathizing brother Democrats, as improper and uncalled for!

Encouraged by this immunity, and stimulated, no doubt, by the high example, a few days later, Mr. BROOKS, a member of the House of Representatives from South Carolina, taking offence at something which Mr. SUMNER had said in his Kansas speech about the nation of South Carolina and Mr. Butler, one of her Senators, walks into the Senate Chamber, steals up behind Mr. SUMNER, sitting quietly in his accustomed seat, fells him to the earth with a bludgeon, and while thus prostrate, unarmed and unresisting, continues to beat him over the head, till he is borne away, bleeding, senseless and most seriously hurt, to his lodgings. No doubt, in Brooke's case, as in Herbert's, there will be a prompt attempt made to stifle inquiry and prevent the summary punishment which such a dastardly and infamous outrage deserves. But shall it succeed? Are such things to be done, with impunity, in the very Capitol of the Republic? Is "Border Ruffianism" to be the prevailing fashion, at Washington, as in Kansas? Are waiters to be shot down in the public hotels, at the pleasure of blustering, bullying and drunken Congressmen? Are Senators to be brutally assaulted and beaten almost to death, for "words spoken in debate?" Is freedom of speech to be suppressed, vi et armis, under the very eaves of the Capitol? Is the law of force—the only law of Slavery—to become the established rule of the land? If so, let us have done with the mockery of Courts, and the make-believes of justice, and all the other expensive, but useless machinery of government, and let each man enforce his own rights, redress his own wrongs and acknowledge no authority or arbiter, but the Revolver, the Bludgeon, or the Bowie-knife!

EPISCOPAL CHURCH AT PRAIRIE DU CHIEN.—The members of the Episcopal Church in Prairie du Chien have taken steps towards the organization of a parish. At the time of Bishop Kemper's visit there, on his last journey to Minnesota, three lots were secured in the upper town for a Church and Parsonage, and a house of worship will be erected as early as possible. The Rev. JOHN H. EGAR, deacon, ordained at Nashotah on Trinity Sunday, has been called to take charge of the parish, and will leave here, for Prairie du Chien, on Monday next. He is zealous, devoted and intelligent, and will, we do not doubt, give a good account of his stewardship.

ONLY AN IRISHMAN!—The News continues to be severely exercised, at the shooting of JONES, (who is getting well) by some Border Ruffians in Kansas, and charges the act upon the Free State men, in and out of that Territory. The same News tacitly approves the murder of the Irishman, KEATING, by a Democratic Member of Congress, in a public room at Washington, and confidently expects the acquittal of the assassin.

From Our New York Correspondent.

NEW YORK, May 19.

There is a feverish feeling, among our commercial classes especially, in regard to war; and there really seems such a complication of affairs in our foreign relations as in some sense to authorize such a feeling. Without a single serious, or reasonable cause of misunderstanding with any other nation, we find ourselves—at a period when all the national interests and industrial enterprises of the country are most prosperous and most exposed—agitating questions with various foreign governments of such grave import as may eventuate in war. Such a state of things cannot be the result of mere accident or mischance. It must arise from total incompetency, or wilful disregard of right and duty, on the part of those who, in this country and in other countries, are charged with the cares of government. Let us look a little at details. With respect to the Administration at Washington, I am not censorious or uncharitable when I say—for the opinion is uttered on all sides around me—that its whole policy, at this moment, is, and for the past year or more has been, shaped to secure the re-nomination at Cincinnati of Mr. Pierce, or, failing of that, of the next worst man, such as Douglas, or Wise, for Mr. Pierce. The honor, the historical antecedents, the hopeful future, the present obligations to Freedom and Humanity, of our Republic, weigh nothing in the balance of such calculations, compared with the chance of success dependent upon this or that party manœuvre—this or that sacrifice to a base cry of faction. Hence, at the outset of this Administration, the appointment of such men as Sickles and Sanders to posts of honor and trust in England—of the red-republican Frenchman, Soule, to Madrid, and of the unrebuked diplomatic conference at Ostend, unparalleled in all our previous diplomatic history; at which American Ministers at different courts in Europe, without any known authority or sanction from the President or Senate, met together, as the representatives of European Sovereigns are wont to meet at Laybach, at Vienna, and latterly at Paris, in order to lay down the law for the world; and at the conference thus held, Mr. Buchanan, the would-be-democratic candidate for President consenting, the question, among others, of acquiring Cuba for the U. S., was discussed, and the ground was then distinctly adopted that what a people want, they have a right to take, peaceably if they can, but at any rate to take; and this highwayman's law was proclaimed to be the law of self-defence upon which this Republic was prepared to act towards her neighbors.

Now I think it may be said with confidence that in no previous Administration of the government—not even under that deemed the meanest and weakest by which we have been disgraced, that of Mr. TYLER—could such a series of insults and defiance to the common courtesies of diplomatic intercourse, and the settled principles of international law, have been attempted; and hence, as seems to have been desired and aimed at, there seems to have been produced all over Europe an impression that this is an aggressive, unreliable government, only to be dealt with on guard and well armed. And yet with all these aggressive, bullying manifestations, when the contingency has arrived for prompt action, there has been indecision and weakness.

Witness the instance of Mr. Crampton's connivance at the enlistment in our ports for the British armies in the Crimea. When that was once established, as it was judicially in Philadelphia, Mr. Crampton should at once have received his passports and been dismissed. This is a right indisputable, frequently and almost always peaceably exercised, and leading by no necessary consequence to material misunderstanding. Instead of this proper and summary proceeding, a long correspondence is opened—arguments in fifty pages folio, pro and con, are elaborated about a fact proved, of such a nature as absolutely to compel the government to refuse its recognition any longer to Mr. Crampton; and now, at the end of many months, and many reams of scribbled paper, we shall find ourselves compelled to do that, after the British government has refused to recall Mr. Crampton, and thus much more offensively to that government, which, if done at first, could not justly be deemed offensive.

And then, again, this very moment of possible embroilment with England is seized upon by our miserable administration for recognizing the pirate government of Walker in Nicaragua, after having refused, when the sky was less clouded abroad, and when Walker himself was much stronger, to recognize him.

No one can fail to see in this recognition a bid for the filibuster Soule's influence at Cincinnati. It is a desperate card, played at the last moment, and upon which are staked the honor and peace of the country, and its good name among nations on the one hand, and on the other Mr. Pierce's chances for a renomination. Of the Greytown massacre I do not speak—all are ashamed of it—and yet it is the only feat of this administration.

This review of our government is little flattering to our pride, or consoling to our hopes of continued peace. The necessities of the position of the British Cabinet place it, too, in a condition where the voice of common interests, and the claims of a common origin and cognate institutions cannot have their legitimate weight.—The war in the Crimea, tho' it has humbled and crippled Russia to the extent that she consents not to have fleets or fortified ports in the Black Sea—not to restore the fortifications of the Aland isles in the Baltic, wherewith heretofore she menaced Sweden—and to relinquish her dominion, heretofore undisputed, over the mouths of the Danube—has also dissatisfied England and lost to her much of her prestige.

The peace was even less acceptable than the war, for by prodigious efforts and outlay she had placed her fleets at least in a condition to reassert something of her ancient supremacy on the sea. Under these circumstances Lord Palmerston finds himself closely beleaguered in his seat as Premier, and, having no special liking, at any rate, for his Yankee cousins, is little in condition, and perhaps as little disposed, to exercise anything that might look like forbearance towards us.

Yet with all these elements of discord, with all these incentives to strife, so obvious and so easily worked upon, I have such confidence in the sound common sense of both peoples, in the strong bond of common interests, and in the moral tone—weaker in both countries than it should be, but yet existing, and a power when appealed to and aroused—that I cannot persuade myself that anything short of a deliberate insult on one side or the other can precipitate us into a war; that would do it, instantly and irresistibly, and grievous indeed is the responsibility of both governments, which have so unnecessarily nay, wantonly, permitted such a state of things to be brought about. If only the tone adopted by Lord Palmerston in his explanation in the House of Commons, on the rumored sending of troops to Canada had been the ordinary tone of his official intercourse, and of the influential British press towards this country, no such irritable state of feeling as now exists could have been engendered.

It is not yet too late; we may hope for the prevalence of better counsels. Mr. Crampton must be, and ought to be, dismissed—we can not do less. Possibly, tho' the step would be most unreasonable and unusual, England may in return dismiss Mr. Dallas. But even then, there is no need of further retaliation. Both countries can live at peace and prosper without the presence of diplomatic representatives. I do not, indeed, know whether it would not make more for the peace and honor of our country, that we should absolutely be without such representatives abroad, rather than have such as for the most part, of late years, we have had. A little cooling off, a little break in the imbroglio of an endless correspondence, would be no evil on either side. Our commerce would go on as heretofore—the people of both countries would go and come as usual, and when the fit of national sulks has worn off, we might begin again with our embroidered ambassadors, and their everlasting notes and despatches, and vulgar toadyism.

Meantime, let us all cultivate feelings of peace—peace with honor—peace that alone can promote freedom, encourage industry, reward labor, and cause the wilderness to blossom like the rose; peace! that should be the perpetual prayer, as it is the best guarantee, the only sure basis of a representative republic. I had intended before closing to take a glance at our relations with the French and their Emperor and Empress, but my letter has run beyond compass. So I must reserve that topic for another.

The News on Kansas.

The News of yesterday, in the course of a spasmodic article about matters in Kansas, murders JONES again; violently abuses everybody who has contributed to the Emigrant Aid Fund; charges them with the whole responsibility for the "Border Ruffian" outrages in Kansas; and thus "officially" whitewashes the damning evidence of frauds and violence collected by the Congressional Committee:

> They pretend to be collecting testimony at Lawrence. Reeder was taking the witnesses and instructing them what to swear to, while the men with Sharpe's rifles managed to impress upon them the propriety of obeying instructions. One abolitionist who refused to swear to all Reeder required, was shot in the leg by way of warning to others, while Whitfield was obliged to leave that nest of fanatics from prudential motives.
> Of course, the testimony taken in this way will have a wonderful influence upon the country.

Of course, the News is careful not to let its readers see a word, even of this "pretended" testimony. And for the best of reasons. The mere publication of the evidence taken would convict the News of deliberate and persevering misrepresentatons in all that concerns Kansas.

Our readers have seen a fair sample of this testimony, including the evidence of Pro-Slavery men, as well as "abolitionists." They leave no doubt of the facts, that Kansas was deliberately invaded by an armed host of Missourians, several thousand strong, in March, '55; the polling places surrounded; obnoxious judges of election allowed "five minutes to resign or die;" Free State settlers forcibly prevented from voting; and in this way a Pro-Slavery Legislature elected, whose Draconian laws President Pierce and Gov. SHANNON are now endeavoring to enforce upon the people of Kansas, at the point of U. S. bayonets. Had the people of Illinois, enlisted in the service of Slavery, marched by thousands and tens of thousands into Wisconsin, and controlled, by superior numbers and force of arms, our earlier elections, with a view to desecrate this fair land by the introduction of SLAVERY, they would have done no more and no worse than the Border Ruffians of Missouri have done and are doing in Kansas! Yet the President of the United States sanctions their course; the army of the United States is called into the field to sustain it, and the sham Democracy of the United States, thro' its supple leaders and servile presses, are made to endorse and defend all these abominable outrages against Right, Freedom, and Humanity!

ST. LOUIS DEMOCRACY IN CONVENTION.—The lately triumphant Democracy of St. Louis county, assembled in Convention at St. Louis on Monday last, and heartily endorsed the platform and nominations made by the true Democracy at Jefferson City, adopted a series of patriotic resolutions, disapproving the repeal of the Missouri Compromise, acquiescing in the principles of the Nebraska act fairly carried out, which is understood not to be the way it has been carried out, condemning Know Nothingism, favoring the extension of the common school system, and on the whole making a far more liberal platform for freedom and equal rights, than any other slave State has dared to adopt.

Francis P. Blair, Jr., a chip of the old Baltimore block, was nominated for Congress, and Dr. M. B. Morris was nominated for the State Senate.—Alton Courier.

The genuine, old-fashioned Democracy of St. Louis are making a gallant fight against the unholy alliance of the "Border Ruffians and Know Nothings," marshaled under the lead of Senator and Vice-President Atchison. The sympathies of the News here, are all with this Border Ruffian and Know Nothing party, and against Col. BENTON and the Democracy of Missouri.

JUDGE McLEAN ON SLAVERY IN THE TERRITORIES.—In his recent speech on Kansas Affairs, Gen. Cass referred to the views of Judge McLean on this question in such a manner as to create an erroneous impression in regard to them. This called out the following note. It is at once explicit and sound:—

> "WASHINGTON, May 13, 1856.
>
> "My dear Sir—A friend stated to me yesterday that he understood you to say that I did not consider that Congress had power, under the Constitution, to prohibit slavery in a territory. I never doubted that Congress had this power, and I could never have expressed any doubt on the subject.
>
> "You may recollect that I have in conversations with you often said that Congress, having the power to establish a territorial government, might, in the exercise of a police power, prohibit slavery, although they had no constitutional power to institute it.
>
> "I informed my friend that I was sure he misapprehended you. I drop this note that in the publication of your speech you may correct any mistake of the stenographer on this subject.
>
> "Very truly yours, JOHN McLEAN.
> "Hon. L. Cass."

FORT HOWARD RESERVE TO BE SOLD.—The last Green Bay Advocate publishes a letter from our Senator, Mr. DURKEE, enclosing one from the Secretary of War, stating that as soon as an Officer of the Quarter Master's Department is dispensable for duty, measures will be taken for the sale of Fort Howard Reservation.

The Advocate says:

> There is in this reservation from 8 to 10,000 acres of the best land in the county, which has been kept from cultivation and taxation. When sold to actual settlers and men of capital it will give an impetus to this county which will astonish the natives. Let it be sold at public auction to the highest bidder and all interested must be satisfied.

DEATH OF JUDGE BURGESS.—The Providence Journal announces the death of Hon. Thomas Burgess, formerly Chief Justice of the Court of Common Pleas for the County of Providence, and subsequently, from 1832 to 1853, Judge of the Municipal Court. He was born in Massachusetts, but went to Providence in 1796. As an upright Judge, and a man of sterling integrity, he was highly esteemed by his fellow-citizens. One of his sons, Hon. Thomas M. Burgess, has been Mayor of Providence, and another, George Burgess, is Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the diocese of Maine.

For the Sentinel.

Correction.

LISBON, May 21st, 1856.

MESSRS. EDITORS—In your paper, I discover that you (indirectly) assume an article published in the News, to have been written by me. I did not deem it worthy of an answer, but I see that another paper in this State says, "Bonham's silence is an admission."

I, therefore, beg leave to say, through the same channel of communication, that you, Sir, are mistaken. D. BONHAM.

CAUTION TO ARCHITECTS.—The First Dutch Reformed Church of Jersey City has sued Mr. Welch, the architect, for $25,000 damages.—They allege that Mr. Welch furnished an estimate to build a church for $20,000, but that already, when only half completed, it has cost $25,000. Hence the suit.

Carroll College at Waukesha.—A. H. Menzel, late of Wauwatosa Academy, has been appointed principal of the preparatory department in place of Dr. S. H. Magoffin, resigned. Rev. C. V. Pigeon has also been appointed Professor of languages in the same institution.

BRICK.—Messrs. Alden of this city, now have contracts for about 6,000,000 brick, to be made for use here this season—3,000,000 of which will be required to complete the Hyatt House.—This firm have employed in one of their yards in this city about forty men, and are moulding at the rate of about 50,000 per day. As soon as some arrangements can be perfected and the number procured, they will employ about twice this number.—Janesville Free Press.

Obituary.

At the Annual Meeting of the Associate Alumni of Nashotah Theological Seminary, held at Nashotah Chapel on the 15th day of May, the following resolutions were passed relative to the death of the Rev. S. J. Hayward, B. D., who having but lately returned from the South in ill health, died at Nashotah of consumption, on the 11th instant, at the residence of the Rev. Dr. Cole:

Whereas, It has pleased Almighty God, in his infinite wisdom, to remove from the church on earth, the soul of our deceased brother, the Rev. Samuel J. Hayward, late a beloved member of our association, and an earnest, humble minister of Christ; Therefore

Resolved, That it is with true and heartfelt sorrow, we record the departure from our midst, of one so highly gifted, so truly devoted, and so dearly loved.

That as a sacred duty and slight tribute to his memory, we who knew him well, bear loving witness to the fidelity and zeal with which he discharged his duty in every state of life which it pleased God to call him. That as his diligence and untiring application, as a Christian student and teacher, his kindness and urbanity as a comrade, his labors and self-denial as a commissioned Ambassador of Christ, his resigned and child like submission to his Heavenly Father's will, when disease prostrated his once powerful frame, and his holy peaceful, death-bed hours, are known to all and were seen by many of us; so the remembrance of them will ever dwell within our hearts as an holy encouragement.

That most gratefully we recall his filial affection for our Alma Mater, which led him hither with the resolve to devote himself as a tutor to her service, if God should prolong his last hours, to remember and aid her by a precious token of his love, and to express the earnest wish, that when called to rest, his earthly remains might be laid within her grounds.

That suffering, though not as those without hope, we offer our warmest and most respectful sympathy to his bereaved family, as brothers we share with them a common loss.

That we wear the customary badge of mourning for 30 days.

H. C. SHAW, Sec'y.

Exciting Scene in the Senate.

WASHINGTON, May 20, 1856.

Mr. Sumner's conclusion to-day even excelled his beginning yesterday, and attracted a brilliant audience. The peroration was commanding in dignified eloquence.

At the close, Messrs. Cass, Mason, Douglas and others, with one accord, rose to obtain the floor, showing how deep and general the shafts had entered. To Mr. Cass was conceded the privilege of the floor, but he let off another Cincinnati rocket. Mr. Douglas surpassed his notorious vulgarity by coarse personalities, which revolted the Chamber. Mr. Mason was vehement in Virginia indignation, though more decorous than Douglas. Mr. Sumner's spontaneous retort upon the three—Cass, Douglass and Mason—was one of the most galling and graceful exhibitions of sarcastic power ever witnessed in the Senate. His mercy to Cass's years was terrible, but becoming. The impalement of Douglas, and the scornful retaliation upon Mason's affected superiority produced the most startling effect. The determination which he exhibited throughout to stand up, contributed materially to the impression, while the whole armory of scourging words were applied without stint, but without once overstepping the bounds of propriety. It was universally conceded by his friends and candid opponents that Douglas was completely cowed and extinguished. There was no division of opinion as to the superiority of style and manner in which he (Douglas) was lashed, to the infinite amusement, astonishment and admiration of the Senate Chamber.—Mr. Sumner has added a cubit to his stature.—New York Tribune.

Interesting from Kansas—A Civil War Approaching.

The attention of our readers is called, in the first place, to despatches in another column, received last night, which show conclusively that the long delayed crisis is rapidly approaching in Kansas, and that even while we write, perhaps the soil of that fair territory is being drenched with the blood of our fellow-citizens. It is a fearful thing to contemplate the crash which must result from the meeting of these opposite waves of opinion, which render Kansas a wide sea of commotion; but there is too much at stake to allow of any shrinking at this hour; and when it is known how long and loud the voice of warning has been raised, and how steadily the administration has turned a deaf ear to the appeals of humanity and liberty, we cannot regret that the issue is about to be made, even though force should be deemed necessary to repel the hellish ruffianism which actuates the chivalric slavery propagandists of the south. The robes of freedom have been too often baptized in blood to fear the results of a conflict with despotism, and in a cause like this, in which the free state men of Kansas are engaged, we have seen on their part the manifestation of a spirit too much like that which animated our revolutionary sires, to feel any lingering doubts as to what the results of such a conflict must be. Kansas may be conquered in this struggle, but the north never will be, unless a different race of men are born to the south.

The cause of Kansas is the cause of freedom throughout the western hemisphere, and upon this question, although not wholly united yet, the north is fully aroused. The first serious conflict in Kansas in which blood is shed, will be the signal fire, which must light the union of these states to desolation. Our rulers in Washington know this fact but too well already, and yet they blindly persist in a course which, hour by hour, is bringing the grave catastrophe nearer to hand. Busied in concocting schemes for the further extension of their pet institution, and for gratifying their mad ambition for place and power, they blindly suffer the noble fabric of this Union to drift on to hopeless destruction, without lifting a single arm to save it, but rather use all the influence and power of their position to aid those who care for nothing so much as to involve us in the wreck. In this dilemma the north has but one course to pursue. The path of duty is plainly before us, and whatever may be the result, the consequences must rest where they belong—upon the heads of the present imbecile administration and its insane advisers.—Buffalo Republic, dem.

Veto of the St. Clair Flats Appropriation Bill.

The President is determined that the commerce of the western lakes shall not be protected while it is in his power to prevent it. The new doctrine of "state equality" is being rapidly carried into effect by forcing the northern states and northern people into a condition of semi-barbarous "equality" with the south, and the words of Douglas, "we will subdue you," the President is laboring with all his might to verify. Twenty-six thousand dollars are taken out of the United States treasury to pay for the capture at Cincinnati and forcible return of a woman to helpless bondage; the army and navy, and the whole power of the federal government, are brought into requisition to conquer the prejudices of a free people in Kansas against the lawless rule of Missouri Ruffians, but not one cent can be appropriated, with the consent of Mr. Pierce, to deepening the channel of the St. Clair Flats, or repairing the dilapidated harbors upon our lakes, in order to insure protection to the lives and property of the whole north. Nay, even while the President is in the act of bullying and browbeating the British Government, which is seeking to restrain the piratical movements of the southern propagandists, our merchants and ship owners are forced to go begging to that very government for pecuniary aid, to enable them to pass in safety with their property over one of the most important highways of nations. Verily is not the humiliation of the North completed?—What has the Courier to say of this action of its model President?"—Buffalo Republic.

The Ground of Mr. Brown's Arrest.

The Westport correspondent of the Missouri Republican gives the following version of the arrest of the editor of the Herald of Freedom, and the grounds on which the Missourians, without process of law, concluded to seize him:

"Geo. W. Brown is now a prisoner here. He was taken up and detained, it being known that he was indicted by the U. S. District Court for treason and inciting rebellion. He was taken by Coon McGee, "our Milt," with the assistance of his trusty negro man, who helped to take Pomeroy last fall. Although Brown was loaded down with arms, and had a companion in the same fix, he gave up without any resistance. The prisoner is the editor of the Herald of Freedom, published at Lawrence, and has violated every section of the "act to punish offences against slave property." He will be taken immediately to Lecompton for trial. The necessary papers will be brought by a deputy to-day."

So Missouri not only furnished Kansas with a Legislature to enact a code of laws, but each of the citizens of the State appears to have constituted himself an executive officer to carry them into execution. "Popular Sovereignty" in Kansas amounts to this and no more.—Chicago Press.

CARSON & CLOSE'S PIER.—An unfortunate fatality seems to pursue this private enterprise, which has proved so great a public benefit heretofore. A week ago last Sunday night the floating ice in the Lake was blown against it by the strong Northeast wind, and from 155 to 200 feet of it was rendered entirely unfit for use. About 125 feet was entirely carried away, forming a gap of that distance between the main pier and the farther end.—Ontonagon Miner, 10th.

Republican Triumph—Barstowism Cleaned out of its last Hold—The Second Ward Redeemed.

The poll in the second ward in this city, was the only one in the county at which a majority for William A. Barstow was given last fall. Even this Spring it gave a small majority for Smith. The election held yesterday for the choice of two Aldermen resulted as follows: To fill the vacancy occasioned by the removal of C. W. Door, S. C. Burnham 125; Isaac Woodle 58; Nathaniel Harsh, 71.

To fill the vacancy occasioned by the removal of S. B. Crosby: E. D. Dimmock, 141; Platt Eyclesymer, 65.

Woodle and Eeylesymer were the regular democratic nominees, and Burnham and Dimmock, Republican.

The Standard called upon the democracy of the "only democratic ward in the city" for a party victory; thus its wish was gratified?

Will the Madison Argus make a note of this matter? Where is the Supreme Court?—Janesville Free Press.

Rev. Pardon Butler, a Baptist clergyman of Kansas, has been tarred and feathered by a set of Douglas scamps lately arrived in the territory from South Carolina, assisted by the infamous Missouri ruffians. Tarring and feathering clergymen—mobbing printing offices and shooting Irishmen are the favorite amusements of the Douglasites in these latter days.—Chicago Democrat.

Sale of Flouring Mills.

Mr. Alfred Ely has sold the "Frontier and Queen City Mills," at Black Rock, for $112,000. The latter was purchased by Albert H. Smith, of Wheatland, for $60,000, and the Frontier, by Jno. H. McCollom, of Oswego, for $52,000.—Buffalo Commercial.

Marine Intelligence.

LAUNCH.—The large schooner, for W. B. Hibbard and Capt. Stewart, which it was expected would be launched to-day, will not go off the stocks until Monday afternoon. We make this statement at the request of Mr. Hibbard, to save many persons a long walk to no purpose to day.

CITY DREDGE LAUNCHED.—The new City Dredge was launched yesterday afternoon. She went into the water not with all the grace and beauty of the swan, but then we presume she will be just as serviceable as some craft of more comeliness and beauty. The machinery is about ready for operation, and the steam will be started in a day or two.—Kenosha Tel.

The schooner Arcturus, Capt. ——, is taking on a cargo of 14,000 bushels of wheat, this morning, at the middle pier, for Buffalo.—Ib.

ALL CLEAR.—The schooners Main, C. Hibbard, and Hibbard, reported by us as aground last week, have all swung clear, and gone on their way rejoicing, with full loads of lumber for Milwaukee and Chicago.—Green Bay Advocate, 20th inst.

ACCIDENT TO THE ORIENTAL.—The propeller Oriental laden with corn, flour and provisions, from Chicago for Buffalo, broke her crank pin near the St. Clair Flats, and was towed to Detroit Sunday. It was expected that she would be speedily repaired and proceed.—Chicago Press.

CHILLS AND FEVER.

TO THOSE who are afflicted with this disagreeable and baffling malady, we would state, that after years of hitherto unavailing research, a medicine has been discovered which will, in every case, effect a certain and permanent cure of this dreaded disease. It is not a quack nostrum prepared to extract money from sufferers, for the proprietor offers to refund the money if a cure is not effected after following the directions. He is assured by the evidence of hundreds of cures which they have effected, that this medicine is in reality the remedy so long desired in the Western country. This valuable medicine is prepared in the form of a pill, from the bark of a shrub, which has proved to be a perfect antidote to Malaria. They are simple and plain in their nature, powerful and active in their operation, and perfectly harmless to the system, having no other than a specific effect upon the disease which is truly wonderful. Some persons have stated that these pills must contain arsenic, or some powerful mineral, owing to their quick effect in curing this disease. The proprietor would state that he will pay one thousand dollars to any chemist who will find one particle of mineral in this composition.

Certificates of cure from persons of the highest respectability can be obtained by calling at the Drug Store of HENRY FESS, JR., No. 195 East Water street.

N. B. One great recommendation for these pills are, that they only require about five to effect a cure. Enquire for THAYER'S OMEGA PILL, for the immediate cure of chills and fever or intermittent fevers of every description. Prepared and sold wholesale and retail by FRED. W. THAYER, 697 Washington street, Boston.

Fever and Ague—an Infallible Cure.

WE DEFY THE WORLD to produce any medicine which does not contain Quinine, Arsenic, Mercury or any noxious or deadly compound, to cure this annoying disease so effectually as Carter's Spanish Mixture. While it contains none of the above named dangerous articles, yet it possesses a power in relieving and curing Fever and Ague which cannot be approached by any of them separately or in combination. It acts specifically on the Liver, purifies the Blood, opens the pores of the Skin, and assists nature to expel from the system the seeds of disease, or what is as bad, the remains of the Mineral Drugs, which clog and finally destroy the constitution.

See the cure of Mr. Longden of Virginia. He had chills twice a day for 3 years, nothing would relieve him until he tried Carter's Spanish Mixture, only 3 bottles of which effectually restored him to health, nor has he had a return of the disease since. may20d1m

☞ When Machaon, the Greek Physician was slain, Homer said of him, "a good Physician is worth as much as a whole army." Then a good medicine like Ayers' Cathartic Pills, is worth a great deal more, because it cures as well, works wider and lasts longer. The circle of the best Physician's labor must be narrow, while such a remedy is available to all—can be had by every body, and is worth having. may20d4t

THE IMMENSE MASS OF TESTIMONY IN favor of Hoofland's German Bitters, convinces us that the article is all it is represented to be, and in consequence we advise a trial of it by those afflicted with diseases for which it is recommended.

R. CHATFIELD, Esq., said:

LOWELL, Dodge Co., Wis., Nov. 1, 1851.—"Over a year ago I sent some money to you from Canada, and received some of your German Bitters, which I used and found great relief from. My health has improved to such a degree, that I am again able to attend to my business. A large number of the dispeptics in this neighborhood have had to send to Milwaukee for the medicine. An agent here could sell large quantities, as I know it to be a sure cure."

Samuel Moore, Platteville, Wis.; James L. Manville, Jefferson, Wis.; Holden, Kemp & Co., Janesville, Wis.; and others in that State, have also expressed their great confidence in the virtues of the Bitters. See advertisement.

VOLUME XI. MILWAUKEE DAILY SENTINEL, SATURDAY MORNING, MAY 24, 1856. NEW SERIES.

DAILY SENTINEL.

Saturday Morning, May 24.

CITY MATTERS.

POLICE COURT, MAY 23.

BEFORE CLINTON WALWORTH, POLICE JUSTICE.

John Collins, drunk and disorderly, fined $8. John O'Brien, disorderly, fined $2; Augustus Rowe, discharged for want of prosecution. Michael Malone, drunk and disorderly, fined $5. A. Anderson, fast driving in the street, fined $5.

SHOP LIFTING.—A warrant was issued against Rachel Briss, who had been arrested by the Chief of Police, for stealing a cigar vase and china saucer, of the value of $3 from the store of Blair & Persons, on East Water Street.—A number of articles were found in the woman's basket, and the examination was postponed to enable the Chief of Police to find owners for them.

Alexander Perrnod for refusing to obey Policeman Smith, at Lake Shore Depot, when ordered to keep off the platform, was tried, found guilty and fined $3 and costs.

THE FILTH IN THE CITY.—The Common Council of this city, on the 24th of April last, passed "An Ordinance relating to the duties of the Marshal and the Police," and this ordinance abolished the office of City Marshal, except so far as related to the collection of Licenses, summoning Jurors and performing the duties of messenger to the Council when in session.

The object of the passage of this ordinance was to effect the certain enforcement of the city ordinances; and, in order that there should be no misapprehension or doubt of the matter, and the duty of enforcing the city ordinances should devolve upon the Police Department, they inserted this section, reading thus:

> SEC. 2. All duties required by any ordinance now in force to be performed by the Marshal, except those herein mentioned, shall hereafter devolve upon and be performed by the Police Department; and when such duties shall be performed by any member of the Police Department, all penalties prescribed for the breach of any such ordinance shall accrue and be received as if such duties had been performed by the Marshal.

The ordinance of which we have quoted, was published in the official paper and became a law—would be received in evidence and regarded as such in the Police Court—And under it, it is clearly the duty of the Police to enforce the ordinances of the city. And when it is remembered, too, that the Council at the same time, on the night that it passed the ordinance referred to, increased the Police Force to twenty-one members, and their salaries to $50 per month, stating that the enforcement of the city ordinances would require an additional number of Policemen, and add to the labor of their offices, it must be manifest to all that the intention of the Council was to have the ordinances properly enforced.

But the whole Police Force, except in removing a few boxes from the sidewalk, and thereby depriving a number of speculators of their public seats, totally disregarded the ordinance of April 24th and refuse to enforce the ordinances, notwithstanding they have been repeatedly complained to. The Police are, in fact, shirking their duty, that is the long and short of the matter. They have light duties to perform even when they do perform them, and are in receipt of good salaries; the tax payers have a right to expect that their duties will be performed; and when complaint is made to a Policeman, of a nuisance—filthy yard or alley, where privies or cess-pools have been emptied in the middle of the day, in conflict with an ordinance, and to the endangering of the public health, it is their duty "to order the owner or occupant, to cleanse, remove or abate the same."

The present Police Department is ample and well paid enough to enforce all the ordinances without being overtaxed with work, and if they do not, or will not enforce them, others can be found who will.

THE POMONA STYLE.—Three bunches of asparagus, two of carrots, three leaves of Cahoon's mammoth pieplant, with a wreath of nasturtiums and Lima beans, are to constitute the fashionable trimmings for ladies summer bonnets in July. So we are informed by one who knows. It has been found that the use of apples and other fruit for the purpose, tends to develop in the wearers of bonnets the same passion which caused our great-grandmother, Eve, and all of us, so much trouble, many years ago. SPAAN, at the 1st Ward Market House, expects to keep the materials constantly on hand.

A NEW KIND OF GAS.—At No. 24 Spring St., opposite the American House, can be seen, this evening, in successful operation, the BENZOLE GAS LIGHT, an entirely new kind of gas, generated on the spot, by a machine propelled by a weight, somewhat similar in principle to a clock, extremely simple. The cost is merely nominal, about nine mills per hour for each burner. We have neither space nor time for a more extended notice at present; the whole apparatus can be seen this evening, in operation, at 24 Spring Street, where the owner of the patent-right will feel pleasure in explaining this novelty.

THEATRE—LAST NIGHT OF MISS DENIN.—Miss SUSAN DENIN makes her last appearance this evening, and will repeat for the occasion, her favorite character of "Camille," in which she has won deserved applause. We advise those of our readers who have not yet seen this very effective drama, to improve the present opportunity to do so. A "National Jubilee" concludes the entertainments, Miss DENIN singing the "Marseillaise" and "Hail Columbia."

GOVERNMENT BUILDINGS—Col. Jones, of Rochester, N. Y., the contractor for the new Government Buildings, is in town, and will commence work, we learn, on Monday next.

MILWAUKEE MUTUAL FIRE INS. CO.—We invite attention to the card of this excellent, substantial, well-tried Company, whose large and successful business for some years past is the best guarantee of its prudent management and safety for insurers.

POWDER.—A. H. GARDINER is agent in this city for the HAZARD POWDER Co., whose explosive material blows itself into public reputation and favor without any further recommendation on our part.

ST. PAUL'S CHURCH.—The Rev. Mr. AKERLY, so long the faithful and beloved Pastor of St. Paul's Parish in this city, will preach in St. Paul's Church to-morrow morning and evening.

ST. JOHN'S CHURCH.—The rite of Confirmation will be administered by the Right Reverend Bishop KEMPER, in St. John's Church, Fifth Ward, to-morrow morning, and the Rev. Mr. AKERLY will preach there in the afternoon.

FOR BUFFALO.—The Propeller Forest Queen will leave for Buffalo this evening at 8 o'clock. For passage apply to John Griffin, on Huron, near Main Street.

I submit the above to the public with the remark that it is a continuation of my reports, the first of which I published in December last, and which constituted the first regular weekly report of bona fide sales of real estate ever furnished the public in this city.

I shall continue to publish a weekly report of sales as heretofore, and would recommend all who are interested in Real Estate, to take the paper containing my said report, and file the same, by which means they will always be familiar with, and have a correct list of all transactions in this line of business. My report is got up with the greatest possible care, and is therefore correct and reliable in every item. W. LAIDLAW.

NOTICE TO ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.

PURSUANT to an act of the Legislature of the State of Wisconsin, authorizing certain towns therein named to vote on the question of taking stock in the Watertown & Madison Railroad, an election was held for that purpose on the 17th day of April last, and decided in the negative by a clear majority of 18, by the largest vote ever before polled in said towns. Immediately thereafter a second election was called for the same purpose only varying the amount, and on the 1st of May declared in the affirmative by a majority of 14, which the town officers assume is sufficient authority for them to issue thirty-five thousand dollars of loan bonds, in payment for that amount of capital stock in said Railroad. Now, therefore, the undersigned, a large majority of the voters, tax payers and land owners in said town of Watertown, sincerely believing that the second election authorizing the issue of said bonds, informal, illegal, fraudulently procured and therefore void, hereby enter their earnest and solemn protest against the issue of said bonds and we also warn and notify all persons purchasing or receiving said bonds that we feel in duty bound to repudiate said bonds and resist the payment of the same, either principal or interest, to the last extremity.

SIX O'CLOCK REPORT.

MORE SHOOTING IN KANSAS.

Rumoured Battle in Lawrence!

ST. LOUIS, May 23.

The Republican publishes a despatch from Westport, dated 20th, which says that Mr. Cosgrove and Mr. Brannon, going from Lecompton to Franklin, were fired upon by a party of Free State men, and Brannon wounded, when Cosgrove put a bullet thro' brain of leader, and the rest flew.

A Free State man was shot at Blanton's Bridge. There was a report that Lawrence was to be evacuated, and that Col. Sumner (U.S.A.) had been called upon to protect the property left.

The Democrat mentions a rumour of a battle at Lawrence, and that a number had been killed on both sides, but gives no particulars.

A mass meeting at Kickapoo resolved to sack the Kansas Hotel in Kansas City, because it was owned by Massachusetts men! Its destruction was considered so certain, that families were moving out. The meeting also offered $200 reward for Gen. Pomeroy, and parties were out, searching for him.

THREE P. M. REPORT.

Congressional.

The Attack on Mr. Sumner.

WASHINGTON, May 23.

Senate.—A message was received from the President, returning with the objections, the bill making appropriations for the improvement of St. Mary's river.

Mr. Wilson briefly detailed the circumstances attending the assault on Mr. Sumner, representing it as not only against the rights of man, but also against the constitutional privileges of the Senate.

Mr. Seward submitted a resolution that a committee of five be appointed by the President pro tem, to enquire into the circumstances, and that said committee be instructed to report facts, with their opinions thereon. On suggestion of Mr. Mason, the resolution was amended, making committee elected by the Senate, when Messrs. Cass, Allen, Dodge, Pearce and Guyer were elected.

HOUSE.—Mr. Washburne of Maine, committee on elections, reported a resolution, that Jas. C. Allen, of Illinois is not, and Wm. B. Guyer is, entitled to the seat now held by the former. Mr. Stevens of the same committee, has prepared a minority report. The consideration of the subject was postponed till the ninth of June.—Mr. Campbell rising to a question of privilege, offered the following:

Whereas, on the 22nd day of May, Hon. Mr. Brooks, and Hon. Lawrence M. Keith, members of this House from South Carolina, and other members, either as principal or accessories, perpetrated a violent assault upon the person of Hon. Chas. Sumner, Senator of the United States from Mass., while remaining in his seat in the Senate Chamber, and while in performance of his duties as Senator; therefore, resolved, that a select committee of five members be appointed by the Speaker, to investigate the subject and report the facts in reference to it as in their judgment may be proper, and necessary for the vindication of the character of this House.

A point of order was raised, and a debate ensued.

Additional to Noon Senate.

WASHINGTON, May 23—3 P. M.

Mr. Stewart gave notice that he should at an early day ask leave to submit an amendment to the rules of the Senate, declaring out of order any Senator who, in debate, should use language reflecting on the conduct and motives of any other Senator discourteously, or improperly reflecting on the State, other than the one represented by the Senator speaking.

A large number of private bills passed, and Senate adjourned.

House continued. Mr. Campbell modified the preamble and the resolution then passed by 87 to 32. During the proceeding, Mr. Brooks remarked that no person except himself knew when the intended assault was to occur. Keith said he did not see the beginning of it. Mr. Campbell of Ohio and the speaker, together, with some other political friends said there had been no outside arrangement in the preparation of the proposition. Messrs. Campbell of Ohio, Allison, Cobb, of Georgia, Greenwood and Spencer were appointed as the committee to investigate the subject. Adjourned.

NEW YORK, May 23.

The U. S. sloop of war Saratoga and Potomac arrived at St. Thomas, May 5th, and sailed next day for St. Croix, all well.

An American war steamer was passed 13th, latitude 36 10 under full sail and steam.

BOSTON, May 23.

The attack on Senator Sumner creates much feeling here, and throughout the State. The indignation is general, and irrespective of political sympathies. The first accounts were read in the House of Representatives yesterday, and caused much excitement. It is not improbable that some public action will be taken in the matter. A rumour that Sumner was dead was prevalent here this morning, causing great anxiety.

WASHINGTON, May 23.

The Union of this morning says the impression sought to be made that Lord Clarendon's recent letter will induce our Government to change its policy in the matter of Crampton's recall, is without foundation.

NEW YORK, May 23.

The Herald's correspondent from Havana, gives the following news, corroborative of that brought by the Quaker City.

The last steamer which sailed hence for Aspinwall, took out as passenger, brigadier General M. S. He has orders to present himself to Gen. Mora, and offer the sympathies of Spain. I have been informed that money, arms and ammunition will be landed at San Juan, if the Costa Ricans are in need of them. The General embarked under a forged name.

The Spanish Government had determined to send a small fleet to Vera Cruz, consisting of two steam frigates and several brigs. The steamers are now coaling, and everything is being made ready with all due precautions to secresy. Vessels will leave this port singly, in order not to attract attention. This squadron is intended to overawe the Mexican Government, and make them pay the indemnities due Spanish subjects for losses sustained during the war of independence.

The present rulers of Mexico have refused the settlement, because it was concluded with Santa Anna.

WASHINGTON, May 23.

It is understood that Mr. Crampton will not return to England. He will visit Canada with the expectation of taking the place of the present Governor, which, rumor says, has been offered him, in case of his dismissal from the United States.

Mr. Sumner is better this A. M., and will probably be able to resume his seat in a day or two. He did not call for help, as has been falsely stated by some parties, he having been rendered almost unconscious after the first blow.

NEW HAVEN, May 23.

No choice for Senator to-day. The last ballot stood, Toucey 101; Dixon 92. In the House of Representatives Mr. Temple of Farmingham, American, offered an order that a joint special committee be appointed to consider what action shall be taken in regard to the assaulting of Senator Sumner. The order was unanimously adopted, and a committee appointed, and an order was sent to be concurred in. A public meeting of the citizens has been called for this evening to consider the matter.

W. LAIDLAW'S LAND AGENCY.

Office 230 E. Water st, 2 doors south of Walker House.

Famous Chance for a New Comer or an Old Settler!

VALUABLE FARM AND WATER POWER for sale. I will sell one of the best farms in the State, with a moderate cash payment, and on easy terms, or exchange same for city property.

Said farm is situated 20 miles from Milwaukee, on a Plank Road, and 2 miles from a depot on the Milwaukee and Mississippi Railroad, and comprises 360 acres, of which 259 acres are fenced, improved, and partly cropped. There are on said farm one frame house, one log house, one large frame barn and any number of sheds, &c., a fine orchard, beautiful springs and a running stream with a considerable fall, the dam is built and a large portion of timber collected on the spot for the erection of a mill, which in that neighborhood would prove a largely paying investment. The property is owned jointly by two parties who are desirous of dividing and settling up their joint interests, and for this reason offers a rare chance for an enterprising man to make a good strike.

W. LAIDLAW'S LAND AGENCY.

$1000 WILL BE DOUBLED in one year by making an investment of this amount in Real Estate, the particulars of which I will give on application.

"PRO BONO PUBLICO."

W. LAIDLAW'S LAND AGENCY, office 230 East Water Street, 2 doors south of Walker House. I beg to return thanks to the public for the liberal patronage bestowed upon me during the time I have been engaged in the real estate business, and I do so with all the more pleasure on account of having received the most striking proofs of the manner in which my services are appreciated. Those who have patronized me know well, and will cheerfully testify to, the advantages which I offer. My principles are straight-forward, honorable and honest. I never require any one leaving the sale of property in my hands, to sign any written obligation of whatever nature or kind soever, binding him to pay a commission anyhow, but adopt the principle of "No sale no charge." The great increase of business has compelled me to enlarge my office, which, now being finished, is the most convenient and desirable in the city, and as the list of property I offer for sale is second to none, I would strongly recommend those who wish to be well served to make my office their head quarters. I have prepared a new map of the city, which exhibits at one glance, and in striking colors, all the best and most desirable property offered for sale. may17

VOLUME XI. MILWAUKEE DAILY SENTINEL, SATURDAY MORNING, MAY 24, 1856. NEW SERIES.

The Press.

The following extract is taken from a new Poem, "The Press," recently read by John G. Saxe, upon a public literary occasion:

THE DAILY PAPERS

Sweet to the traveler are the urchin's chimes,
Proclaiming "Here's your Tribune, Herald, Times"
Those lively records of each passing day,
That catch the echo ere it dies away,
Of battle, bravery, sudden death, and all
That mortal mind can startle or appal!

* * * * * * * *

Letters describing festive rural scenes,
Ship news—too often "news for the marines"—
Fortune's bright favors, and misfortune's shocks,
The fall of Hungary and the fall of stocks,
The important page that tells the thrilling tale,
How empires rise and Red Republics fail,
How England's lion, loitering in the lair,
Essays in vain to shoot the Russian bear,
How France, bemoaning the expensive war,
Would give her "Louis" to save her louis d'or;
While the poor Turk, such hapless luck attends,
Cries "Gracious Allah! save me from my friends!"

Two Hundred Years.

BY PIERPONT.

Two hundred years!—two hundred years
How much of human power and pride,
What glorious hopes, what gloomy fears,
Have sunk beneath their noiseless tide!

The red man at his horrid rite,
Seen by the stars at night's cold noon—
His bark canoe, its track of light
Left on the wave beneath the moon,—

His dance, his yell, his council fire,
The altar where his victim lay,
His death song, and his funeral pyre,
That still, strong tide hath borne away.

And that pale pilgrim band is gone,
That, on this shore, with trembling trod,
Ready to faint, yet bearing on
The ark of Freedom and of God.

'SABBATH' AND 'SUNDAY.'—A correspondent of the Notes and Queries, says the only word used in English for the first day of the week, before the existence of Puritanism, were Sunday, the Lord's day. The former of these expressions was used by the Saxon ancestors, with all other Teutonic nations. The latter was adopted from the Christian form of southern Europe.—Sunday, in Italian, still retains the Hebrew name of Sabbato. The word for Sunday, in Russian, means resurrection, identifying the day, as the southern nations do, though more significantly, with the great triumph of the Christian faith.'

D'Israeli, in his Commentaries on the Life of Charles I, fixes the reign of Elizabeth and the year 1554, as the period when Sunday was first called Sabbath (dies Sabbati). He says—'It was in the reign of Elizabeth, during the unsettled state of the national religion, that a sect arose among the reformers of the reformed, who were known by the name of Sabbatarians.' Also that—'John Knox, the great reformer of Scotland, was the true father of this same doctrine in England, although Knox was the bosom friend of Calvin—(Vol. ii, c xvi, 353.)' 'Calvin was opposed, as were indeed Luther and other great reformers of that day, to Knox's views of Sunday. Knox himself was behind some of the present day professors, if a tradition at Geneva is true: 'That when John Knox visited Calvin on a Sunday, he found his austere coadjutor bowling in a green. At this day and at that place (continues D'Israeli) a Calvinist preacher after his sermon, will take his seat at a card table.'

In order the better to do this, the proprietors have erected a large brick foundry in addition to their former premises. They have added to their stock of Tools a large Planing or Shaping Machine, three Lathes, and a Machine for making bolts, and are now putting in a Steam Engine of —horse power to drive the whole, thereby adding to the former facilities for the successful carrying on of the Foundry, Machine, Engine and Blacksmithing business. the Proprietors refer to that in successful operation through the country as their best recommendation, as it can speak for itself. All they can say is, that they are both PRACTICAL MECHANICS, and know how work should be done as well as the best man.

They continue to manufacture FLOUR and SAW MILL GEARING, and STEAM ENGINES on the most approved principle.

They have always on hand a large stock of BRASS WORKS, such as GUAGE AND CYLINDER COCKS, OIL CUPS AND COCKS, and STEAM WHISTLES. Also TURTON'S FILES, which they will sell at the lowest cash price.

They are also Agents for EASTMAN'S PATENT STEAM GUAGES, which are well worth the attention of all those who use Steam Engines.

In conclusion, they invite a continued share of the patronage of their old friends, and solicit a call from all those in want of Saw or Flouring Mill Work, assuring them that no exertions will be spared to render the Old Eagle worthy of the reputation it has already gained.

MILWAUKEE MUTUAL FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY.

OFFICE IN MARTIN'S BLOCK, MILWAUKEE, WIS.

Capital over $165,000, in Cash & Premium Notes.

THIS COMPANY offers unrivalled facilities for the insurance of Buildings and Personal Property against fire. The advantages offered are security beyond the reach of circumstances, as the real estate insured is by law bound for the assessment made to cover losses beyond the power of evasion. Every person insured is a member of the Company, and entitled to one vote. The cost of insurance does not exceed one third as much as in Stock Companies, saying nothing of the increased security and the incompatible ease with which losses are settled. During the last five years, this Company have issued 2600 Policies, and made but three assessments, at a cost to the property insured, not exceeding two mills on the dollar.—Its business is principally confined to this State.

TO THE MILLION!

READ AND JUDGE FOR YOURSELVE

PROFESSOR WOOD'S Hair Restorative is no doubt the most wonderful discovery of this age of progress, for it will restore, permanently, grey hair to its original color, cover the head of the bald with a most luxuriant growth, remove at once all dandruff and itching, cure all Scrofula and other cutaneous eruptions, such as scald head, &c. It will cure as if by magic, nervous or periodical headache, make the hair soft, glossy, and wavy, and preserve the color perfectly, and the hair from falling to extreme old age. We could give the testimony of more than one hundred thousand to the truth of every word we have written. See circular and the following:

CARLYLE, Ill., June 29, 1855.

I have used Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative, and have admitted its wonderful effect. My hair was becoming, as I thought prematurely grey; but by the use of his Restorative it has resumed its original color, and I have no doubt permanently so.

SIDNEY BREESE,
Ex-Senator United States.

VINCENNES, Ind., June 10, 1855.

Prof. O. J. Wood. Dear Sir—As you are about to manufacture extensively and vend your recently discovered Hair Restorative, I will state for whomsoever it may concern, that I have used it and known others to use it; that I have for several years been in the habit of using other hair restoratives, and that I find yours vastly superior to any other I know. It entirely cleanses the head from dandruff, and with one month's proper use will restore any person's hair to the original youthful color and texture, giving it a healthy, soft and glossy appearance, and all this without discoloring the hands that apply it, or the dress on which it drops. I would therefore recommend its use to every one desirous of having a fine color and texture of hair.

Respectfully yours,
WILSON KING

A gentleman of Boston writes to his friends in New Bedford, thus

To your inquiries I would reply that when I first commenced using Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, my hair was almost white, and had been so for the last ten years and it was very thin on the top of my head, and very loose and pulled out freely; but I found that before I had used the second bottle up (which was eight weeks) my hair was entirely changed to its original color (light brown) and is now free from dandruff and quite moist. I have had my hair cut five or six times since the change, and have never seen anything like white hair starting from the roots, and it is now as thick as it ever was, and does not come out at all. It has proved in my case all that I could wish or ask.

Yours, &c., ——.

GARDNER, Me., June 22, 1855.

Mr. Dyer: Dear Sir—I have used two bottles of Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative, and can truly say it is the greatest discovery of the age for restoring and changing the hair. Before using it, I was as grey as a man of seventy. My hair has now attained its original color. You can recommend it to the world without the least fear, as my case was one of the worst kind.

Yours, &c.,
DANIEL N. MURPHY.

ST. LOUIS, March 7, 1854.

Prof. Wood.—My hair commenced falling off some three or four years since, and continued to do so until I became quite bald. I tried all the popular medicines of the day, but to no effect. At last I was induced to try your celebrated Hair Restorative, and am happy to say it is doing wonders. I have now a fine growth of young hair, and cheerfully recommend its use to all similarly afflicted.

ST. LOUIS, June 23, 1853.

Prof Wood:—As you are about to prepare and vend your recently discovered Hair Restorative, and as you request my opinion of it, I will state that my hair was, a few months ago, very grey; and after using two bottles of your Hair Restorative, it assumed its original color, and since its application all dandruff has disappeared from my head, and I have been troubled with no disagreeable itching of the scalp. I am satisfied those who use it will not regret it, as it gives the appearance of having been recently oiled. I am prepared, therefore, to recommend its use to all who are desirous of having a beautiful head of hair.

I am, sir, yours, &c.,
B. L. STEWART.
